Don't Mix All Three!

Red, Yellow,

and Blue from

the sky flew.

'Paint this gray

town!' yells the crew.

'I am Red!'

Red yells to

the crew. 'I

blaze bright,

bold and new!'

A few butterflies flit where the flowers grew. 'I am Yellow!' sings Yellow to the crew.

Blue steps in a lake, bright and new. 'Don't mix all three. That's the rule we knew!'

Red spews red

paint in a big bright spout.

'Catch it,

Yellow!' he calls

out.

Splash! Orange grew like a ball of sun. Red and Yellow gasp, what fun!

Blue threw paint up and Red's paint grew. Red leaps high as the streams brew!

Splash! Purple bursts, bright and new. Red and Blue gasp at what they drew.

Yellow and Blue

brew paint

bright and new.

The blobs shine

in the air like

drops of dew.

Splash! Green grew bright where the yellow paint flew. Yellow and Blue gasp at what they drew!

'Mix all three!'

Red calls to the crew. Blue grins

and sprays,

'Let's break the rule we knew!'

Bang! The sky bursts. Streaks flew! 'We broke the rule!' Blue whispers, 'Phew!'

'Paint again soon?' Red grins at his crew. 'Yes!' cheers Blue. 'Fresh paint, bright and new!'

EW

Don't Mix All Three!

Red, Yellow, and Blue Dinosaur have one job: paint the gray town bright again! But there's a rule - never, ever mix all three colors at once. What happens when red splashes into yellow? What about blue into red? And what if three cheeky dinosaurs decide to break the biggest rule of all? Get ready for a sky full of surprises! This decodable reader practices the 'ew' phonogram in words such as 'brew,' 'crew,' 'flew,' 'knew,' and 'phew.'
