Ned and the Magic Book

Ned is at his home with The Book. He has pigs and crops and land.

'I have a big problem,' says Ned. 'I want to look splendid!'

Ned is in his shop. He lifts up his fresh hide kit. 'It is so dull!' says Ned. He is upset. 'Tint it!' says The Book.

Ned runs to the land. Lots of plants grow in the grass.

He picks red ones and sun-like ones. 'I expect a fresh tint!' says Ned.

Back in the shop, Ned crushes a red rose. Red mix drips from his fists.

He rubs it on the kit. In an instant, it is red!

Ned has the red kit on. He looks at himself.

'Red is so vivid,' says Ned. 'I look mad! Not that color!' 'Test the sun-like plant,' says The Book.

Ned crushes the plant on the bench. The mix is like the sun.

'What a splendid mix!' says The Book. Ned rubs it into a fresh kit.

Ned has the sun-like kit on. 'I look like the sun!' says Ned. 'Not that color!'

'I admit, it is vivid,' says The Book.

Ned is glum. He crushes a rose and a plant. He mixes the red and the sun-like mix.

All of a sudden, a fresh tint! 'What is that?' asks Ned.

Ned rubs the mix into a fresh kit. He has it on. He spins!

'That is the color!' yells Ned. 'Orange armor is fantastic!'

Ned makes lots of stands. He sets the stands in a line by his home. 'What is the plan?' asks The Book. 'I can not tell yet!' says Ned with a grin.

Ned picks lots of plants. He mixes and tints all day. All the stands have vivid kits! 'Look at all the color!' yells Ned. 'What talent!' says The Book.

It is dark. Ned walks off in his orange armor with his blade. Goblins hide in the dark. 'The goblins can all see that color!' says The Book. 'Yes!' says Ned. 'And I look epic!'

Could mixing colors give Ned the fantastic look he's after?
