

Blue Hues

The rain ends at last, and the sun is
out. Jen runs out
and grins.

The wind feels cool.
It is a blue, blue
day.

Jen looks up.
Kites zip and
zoom in the blue.
But Jen just grins. The best
is not up yet.

This is the blueprint. All bits
must match, so Jen checks with a tool.

A bit off, and it
drops.

Snip, snip! Jen
cuts thin sheets
with a tool.

Then she adds
glue, and a bit
too much glue.

Next is the string.
It continues from
room to room, on
and on.

Jen runs and
jumps with it.

Jen is on the roof. A gust is the cue!

It lifts the kite
up, and the troll
queen grins.

The kite dips
and drops. But a
gust rescues it,
and it zooms up
past the rest.

Go, queen, go!

Up and up the
kite zooms, up in
the sunset hues.

She is queen, and that is true.

Blue Hues

A girl has waited all week for the rain to stop, and today the sun is finally out. Every kite on the street looks amazing, but hers has a secret weapon on the front that none of the others do. Will her troll queen kite fly higher than all the rest? Written for Jolly Phonics classrooms (Group 7: ue /ue/), this book practices words like 'blue', 'glue', 'cue', 'rescues', 'hues'.

Learn to read with confidence

The Bookbot app and its carefully designed decodable books help children practise the sounds and words they are learning, building strong phonics and reading skills one step at a time. In the app, children can listen to stories read aloud, follow highlighted words as they are spoken, and read independently when they are ready. Together, the decodable books and oral reading support help develop accuracy, fluency, confidence and a love of reading. Learn more at www.bookbotkids.com.
