

Can Bug Sing?

Bug grips the tree and grins. She has vim, and she has to sing!

Bug visits Duck
at the pond.

Duck sings in the rain, but it is a wet, wet
song.

Frog sings on and on at the pond.

It is a vast song. Bug can not sing it.

Big Bird revs
up and sings
a big, big song. Bug
claps with vim.
It is a hit!

Sad Bird sings a sad, sad song.

Bug asks for a fun song, but she asks in vain.

Ping, ping! Crick sings a vivid, fun song, and Bug runs up to him with a big grin.

Bug stands on a rock and sings. Ping, ping!

She sings seven
pings, and the song
rings and rings.

Bug gets the lot to sing. It is havoc, but Bug taps and the band gets it.

The band sings
a big song on the hill.

Sad Bird sings
soft as velvet,
and Bug grins.

Bug sings and
sings on the hill.

She visits the plants and the rocks, and she sings to the lot.

Can Bug Sing?

Bug has vim, and she has a big feeling in her belly: she wants to sing! There's just one problem: she has never sung a single note in her life. She visits Duck, Frog, and Big Bird to learn their songs, but none of them feel quite right, so what kind of song will Bug find for herself? Written for Jolly Phonics classrooms (Group 5: v /v/), this book practices words like 'vim', 'visits', 'vivid', 'seven', 'vast'.

Phonics Focus: <v>

havoc, revs, seven, vain, vast, velvet, vim, visits, vivid

Learn to read with confidence

The Bookbot app and its carefully designed decodable books help children practise the sounds and words they are learning, building strong phonics and reading skills one step at a time. In the app, children can listen to stories read aloud, follow highlighted words as they are spoken, and read independently when they are ready. Together, the decodable books and oral reading support help develop accuracy, fluency, confidence and a love of reading. Learn more at www.bookbotkids.com.
