Don't Drop That Sack!

Things hang ripe and long and strong!
Dog and I sing a song!

Our mango sack is long and strong.

Bing, my mate, sings a song!

Bing clings to the tree, brave and strong. I sing a mango song.

Bing munches mango. What a zing! 'You look like a mango!' I sing.

Sam waves his arm, his smile so wide.
He longs for mango by his side.

Mangoes swing down, a rope so long. Sam grabs the bunch with a song!

We bring our crop and set up shop. Dad sells the mangoes, non-stop!

From shop to boats we bring each thing. We ride the waves and start to sing!

We rest in the tree and sing a song. Dog wags and grins all day long.

NG

Don't Drop That Sack!

It's mango harvest day, and every single fruit matters! Can our hero balance a wobbly sack across the garden without a splat? Will Bing stop showing off before disaster strikes the tree? From baskets lowered on ropes to a bumpy boat ride at the floating market, there's singing, sorting, and one very hopeful dog who's just waiting for somebody to drop the big one. This decodable reader practices the ng sound in words like 'bring,' 'sing,' 'long,' 'strong,' and 'swing.'
