

Red, Sun, and Sky!

Max, Pip, and Cal dash down
from the sky in haste.

'Don't mix all
three!' calls Cal.

Max lands with a bang, and a
big blaze
flames up. 'Red
is the best!'
yells Max.

Pip lands in the sun and grins.

A small tame
bug lands on Pip, and Pip
grins and grins.

BLUE

Cal wades into
a still lake.

'We can mix,'
says Cal. 'But
don't mix all
three.'

Max sends a
big blob of red
paint up. 'Take
it, Pip!' yells
Max, and Pip
grabs at it.

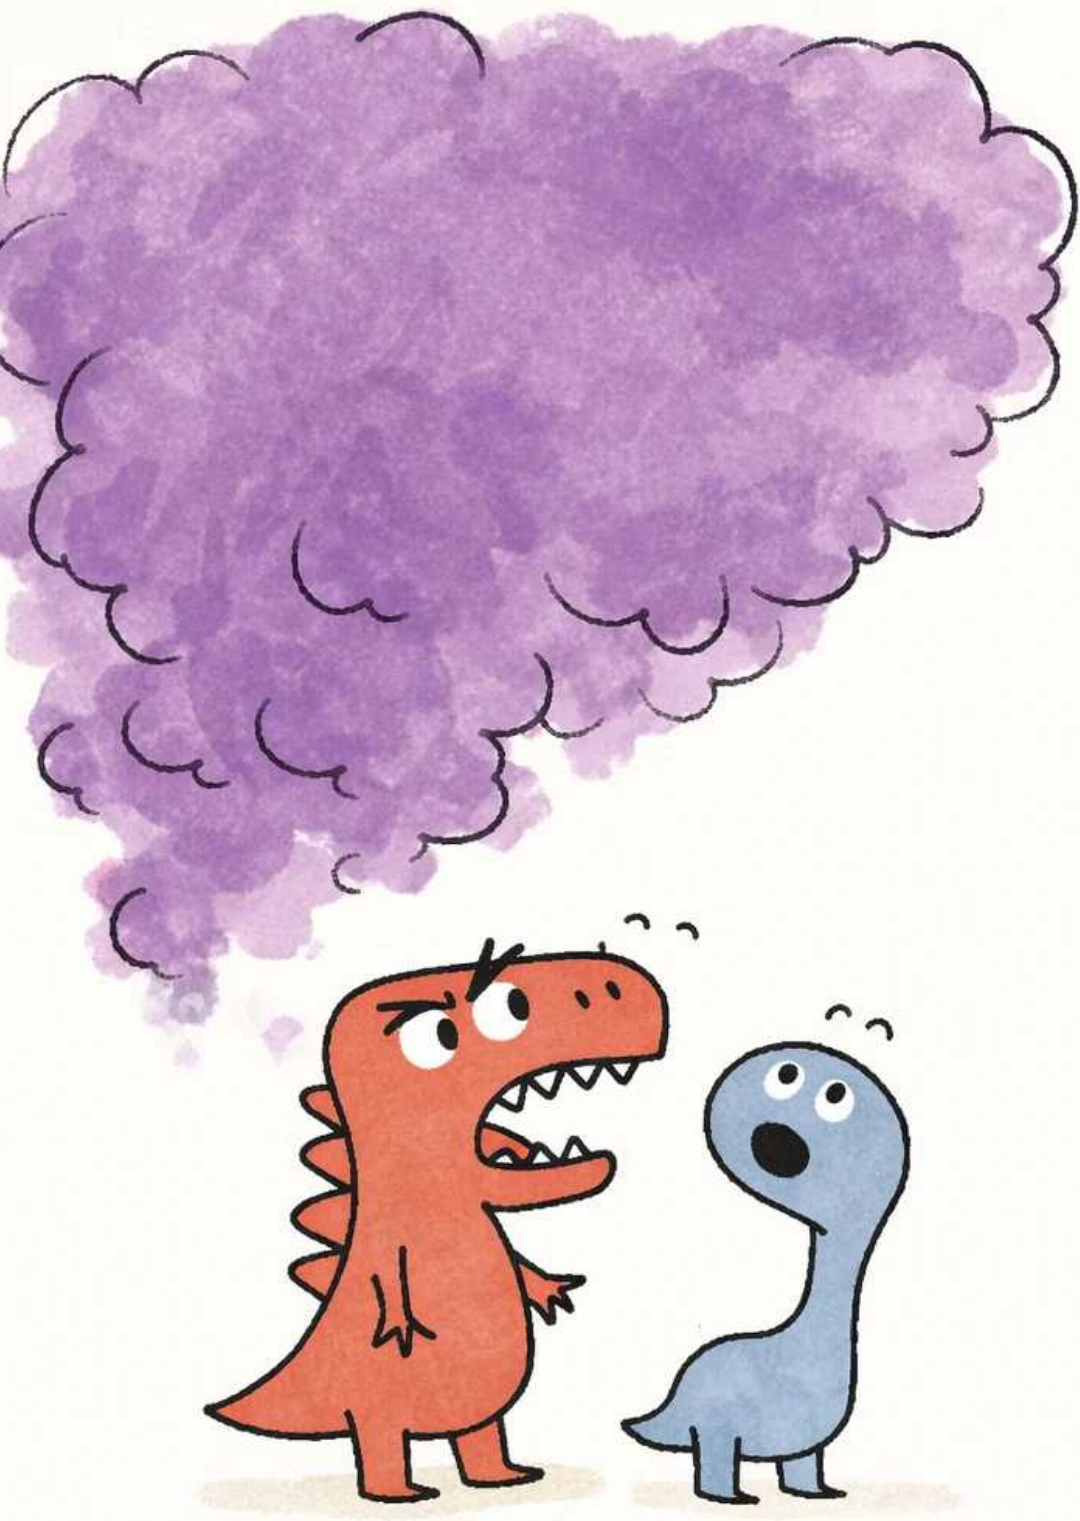

Bang! The blobs
mix, and a big
fresh shade
blasts up. 'We
made that!' yells
Pip, and Max
grins.

Cal sends a blob
of paint up, and
Max jumps up
fast to take it.
'Be safe, Max!'
calls Cal.

Splat! A big fresh shade
puffs up.

'What a shade!'
gasps Max, and Cal nods.

'Mix with me, Cal!' yells Pip. The blobs spin up and blend, and Cal gazes up. 'What shade will we get?' says Cal.

Splash! Pip
claps and yells,
'It is the shade
of grass!'

Cal grins a big grin.

Max grins. 'We should mix all
three!'

'No, no!' gasps
Cal. 'It is a big mistake!' But up
go the blobs.

Bang! Splats of colour fall on the block. Max, Pip, and Cal stand in a daze. 'It is grand,' says Cal.

Max stomps in
the wet paint.

'What a fun
game!' yells Max.

'We should do
this a lot,' says
Pip, and Cal grins.

Do Not Mix Us All!

Max, Pip, and Cal race down to paint the grey neighbourhood, but there's one rule: never mix all three colours together. As splats of red, yellow, and blue blast into new shades above the rooftops, the three friends can't resist pushing their luck further and further. Could breaking the one rule they were given turn into something they can't undo? Created to align with the UFLI Foundations scope and sequence (Lesson 54: a_e /ā/), this book practises words like 'blaze', 'shade', 'gazes', 'mistake', 'daze'.

Phonics Focus: a_e /ā/
