

My Hair

I love my hair in every way. I can do fun things with it each day.

My hair
shoots up high
on hot days.
My dog wears
his shades to block the rays.

I run fast and
my hair trails
this way. My dog runs
close as we play all day.

I hold my hair
tight in the cold snow today. My dog trots close
as we make our way.

I cut my hair short one day in May. But short hair just was not my way.

I like long hair
best of all, I say. On soft green grass I love to lay.

Today I fix my hair
a big new way. I clip
in pink and green,
then add the spray!

I keep my pens in my hair each day.
It holds a lot
for art and play!

My mom says
it looks like a nest today.

What if real birds came to stay!

I wash and brush my hair
each day. We trim it so it
grows the right way.

But some days I just let it stray. A wild, fun mess can make my day.

Cut my hair? No way! It is a great hair day.
Buds in my
braids stay.
They sway as I
play.

My Hair

What can hair really do? Mine can block the sun like a giant umbrella, keep me warm as toast in the snow, hide a whole dog inside its curls, and even become a bird's nest on dress-up day! My pup sticks close through every wild style, tangled adventure, and windy walk. But will I ever cut it short again? This decodable reader practices the 'ai/ay' sound in words such as 'day,' 'play,' 'spray,' 'stray,' and 'trails.'
