DR. CAN DO

NOT MY PIES!

Tom has a small bakery.

He has the best pies in all the land.

Tom is glad.

What a mess!
The mob is in
bits. Tom, Jill
and the Mage
all stand and look.

At dusk Tom stands and looks. All is
dim. Dr. Can Do tells Tom all is well. But Tom mulls and mulls.

Tom is in bed
but he can not stop at
all. Not the bakery! Not the bakery!

Blast! The
bakery falls.
Tom is mad
and he yells
and yells.

Jill pats Tom.
Dr. Can Do
has a plan. A big tall wall to help all the land!

All help with the wall. The wall is tall and grand. No bad
mob can get in!

Tom has a
grand bakery
and Jill has a plant. All is well in the land.

Not My Pies!

Tom the baker is sure a big stone wall will finally keep his bakery safe from sneaky creepers, and Jill even plants flowers by the small entrance to make it smell twice as sweet. But when the ground shakes at dusk and smoke curls into the tall evening sky, Tom wonders if any wall could ever be strong enough. Will his new bakery survive the night? Created to align with the UFLI Foundations scope and sequence (Lesson 43: -all, -oll, -ull), this book practices words like 'wall', 'tall', 'small', 'falls', 'mulls'.
