What Is That Smell?

Tip is up.
Sniff, sniff!
Snow! She
must tell
them all.

Tip rushes in.
Brat Cat rests
by the lamp.
"Get up, Brat
Cat!" Tip yells.
"Get up!"

They step off
the deck.
Snow falls on them! Tip
dashes off
with a big grin.

Tip stacks a
big ball, then a
small ball on
top. Sniff, sniff!
What is that
odd smell?

Fig Pig stands
with the lit
bulbs. Brat Cat
nods at them.
Tip still sniffs.
That odd smell!

Tip stands
still and sniffs.
That smell! It is from the hill. She must run, quick!

Tip rushes to
the hill and stops. A big snack sits in the snow! It is the best smell yet.

Brat Cat did
this! She hugs
them with a big grin. Then all of them stand in the soft snow.

What Is That Smell?

Tip's nose wakes her before the sun is up, and something in the air smells wild and new. Snow is falling, and she can't wait to tell Brat Cat and Fig Pig. But halfway through building a snowman, Tip's nose twitches at another smell entirely, sweet and warm and impossible to ignore. What could be hiding out there in the snow? Created to align with the UFLI Foundations scope and sequence (Lesson 46: Voiced th /th/), this book practices words like 'the', 'them', 'that', 'with', 'then'.
